

Who: United Nations Association of Georgia - Carolinas with Executive Board Member, United Nations U.S. Ambassador Andrew J. Young

What: UN75 and Beyond: “What A Wonderful World” Virtual Global Conversation
To mark its 75th anniversary in 2020, the United Nations launched the biggest-ever global conversation on the role of global cooperation in building the future we want.

When: Wednesday, May 27th, 1:00 pm. Visit www.unagacarolinas.org to reserve your spot.

Why: The objective is to stimulate longer-term discussion – and action – on reinvigorating global cooperation and on solutions to the biggest challenges we face.

- To listen to their hopes and fears; and learn from their ideas and experiences.
- Through these conversations, the United Nations aims to build a global vision of 2045 - its centenary, to increase understanding of the threats to that future, and to generate ideas on expectations of global cooperation to secure that future.
- Global opinion polling and media analysis will be conducted in parallel to the dialogues to provide statistically representative data that can inform future communications and policy making.
- The views and ideas generated will be presented to world leaders and senior UN officials at a high-profile event in September 2020, as well as disseminated online and through partners on an ongoing basis.

Who Can Participate:

- Anyone can join this global conversation. While UN75 seeks to drive conversation in all segments of society - it will place special emphasis on youth, and those who may not normally engage with the United Nations.
